Notes to Financial Statements

Note A – Organization and Nature of Business

McNamee Lawrence Securities, LLC (the “Company” or “MLS”) is registered as a broker-dealer in securities under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 (“Act”) and is a non clearing member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”). The Company was created pursuant to the corporation laws of the State of Maine in October 1998. The Company does not carry customer accounts and is accordingly exempt from the Act’s rule 15c3-3 (the Customer Protection Rule) pursuant to provision k(2)(i) of that rule.

The Company engages in the investment banking business by providing financial advisory services primarily to institutional customers, advising and arranging capital sourcing, mergers and acquisitions, and providing fairness opinions.

The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of McNamee Lawrence & Co. LLC (“MLC”).

Note B – Significant Accounting Policies

Revenue

Revenues are recorded by MLS when MLC or its affiliate (“Affiliate”), has earned its related revenue and the amount of income earned is reasonably determinable and collectible.

Cash

The Company considers all balances in demand deposit bank accounts to be cash equivalents.

Income Taxes

MLC as the sole member has elected to treat the Company as a disregarded entity for income tax purposes and includes the Company’s income and deductions in its tax returns. Thus, generally, no provision or liability for federal or state income taxes is included in these financial statements.

The Company’s current policy is that taxes due or paid, relating to the filing of the consolidated tax return, will be the sole responsibility of MLC. MLC intends not to have the Company reimburse or be reimbursed for any taxes due or reduction of tax on the consolidated level attributable to the Company. Accordingly, no liability for uncertain tax positions has been reflected in these financial statements.

McNAMEE LAWRENCE SECURITIES, LLC
(a wholly-owned subsidiary of McNamee Lawrence & Co. LLC)

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Evaluation of Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated the effect which subsequent events may have on these financial statements through March 31, 2017, the date these financial statements became available to be issued.

Note C – Related Party Transactions

MLS and MLC have common Officers and Directors which may result in conflicts of interest (such as allocation of employee time and overhead expenses) in the course of their management of the Company's operations. The Affiliate is a related party with MLC through common ownership.

MLC or its Affiliate will pay MLS a certain agreed upon amount per transaction closed by MLC for its services as a broker dealer. For the year ended December 31, 2016, MLS earned a fee of $10,000 for revenue generated by the affiliate.

MLC and MLS have an agreement whereby MLC or its Affiliate will allocate to MLS a certain agreed upon amount of specific expenses incurred for providing certain support services. For the year ended December 31, 2016 a total of $6,460 in expenses was charged by the Affiliate of MLC to MLS.

As of December 31, 2016, MLS owed MLC $5,551 for reimbursement of certain expenses paid on its behalf. MLC intends to fund any operating cash needs of the Company through capital contributions at least through 2017. MLS recognized capital contributions totaling $22,500 for the year ended December 31, 2016. A portion of the capital contribution received in 2016 was in cash totaling $7,500. The remaining 2016 capital contribution of $15,000 was recorded based on an agreement with MLC and the Affiliate that reduced the amount the company owed to the Affiliate by the $15,000 and MLC issuing a promissory to the Affiliate for such amount. With limited expenses, it is expected the Company will be able to meet its obligations through at least March 2018.

McNAMEE LAWRENCE SECURITIES, LLC
(a wholly-owned subsidiary of McNamee Lawrence & Co. LLC)

Notes to Financial Statements

Note D – Net Capital Requirement

As a registered broker/dealer, the Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires that the Company maintain minimum net capital. The Company has elected to use the basic method, which requires that the Company maintain minimum net capital, as defined, equal to the greater of $5,000 or 6-2/3% of aggregate indebtedness, as defined. Net capital and aggregate indebtedness may change on a daily basis. As of December 31st, 2016, the Company had net capital of $29,123 which was $24,123 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital as of December 31st, 2016 was 1.56 to 1.

Note E – SIPC Reconciliation Requirement

SEC Rule 17a-5(e)(4) requires a registered broker-dealer to file a supplemental report which includes procedures related to broker-dealers SIPC annual general assessment reconciliation or exclusion from membership forms. In circumstances where the broker-dealer reports $500,000 or less in gross revenue they are not required to file a supplemental SIPC report. The Company is exempt from filing the supplemental report under SEC Rule 17a-5(e)(4) because it is reporting less than $500,000 in gross revenue for the year ended December 31, 2016.

To the Sole Member of
McNamee Lawrence Securities, LLC

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report Pursuant to SEC Rule 15c3-3, in which (1) McNamee Lawrence Securities, LLC identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. § 15c3-3(k) under which McNamee Lawrence Securities, LLC claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3: (2)(i) (the "exemption provision") and (2) McNamee Lawrence Securities, LLC stated that McNamee Lawrence Securities, LLC met the identified exemption provision throughout the year ended December 31, 2016 without exception. Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(i) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
